

CUREIQ Medical Computer

Built for Clinical Demands

The CUREIQ Medical Computer is engineered to deliver consistent performance in critical healthcare environments – from bedside data entry to intensive care monitoring.

Key Features

1. Fanless design for infection control
2. IP65-rated, full-touch antimicrobial screen
3. Silent operation with high reliability
4. DICOM-compliant display

Designed to reduce failure risk and improve workflow in high-pressure clinical settings.

Explore the proper configuration for your department:
ICU, Polyclinic, or outpatient care.

